Churburg / Churburg Castle

We will take the train from Malles/Mals train station to Sluderno/Schluderns. From there, we will walk up to Churburg Castle for a visit. Situated at the entrance of Val di Mazia valley in Sluderno/Schluderns, Churburg Castle, known as Castel Coira – “Churburg” in German, is one of South Tyrol's best-preserved castles. The ancestral seat of the Trapp family since 1504, the castle complex dates from the twelfth to the sixteenth centuries and features furniture and art from various periods, along with one of the world's largest private collections of armaments.
